This relates to what we discussed yesterday. Note that the impact of the action to withdraw is largely temporary, and will be resolved following submission of report documents (assuming no larger concerns about the underlying financial situation of the district, independent of the audit delay). The impact should be limited to additional challenges should the district seek to borrow while the rating is withdrawn, which we do not plan to do.

Please let me know if I can provide additional information.

Cheers,

Hello,

You have been identified by the rated entity Iowa City Community School District, IA or its agent as the contact to receive draft communications of credit rating actions regarding the rated entity prior to the public dissemination of the credit rating action.

Attached is the draft press release for your review, to give you the opportunity to draw attention to any factual errors and/or inadvertent disclosure of confidential information. However, please note that under our policies, Moody's Investors Service (MIS) retains ultimate editorial control over the form and content of all its publications. MIS will not accept other changes that would alter the meaning or tone of its opinions or credit rating announcements.

Please note that this draft press release is strictly confidential and you may not disclose it to any other person except: (i) to your legal counsel acting in their capacity as such; (ii) to your other authorized agents who are subject to confidentiality obligations and acting in their capacity as such; and (iii) as required by law or regulation.

You also may not post it to any SEC Rule 17g-5(a)(3) website, if applicable.

You have two working hours from the time of this email to tell us if the draft press release contains any factual errors or inadvertent disclosures of confidential information, after which we may publish the press release whether we have heard from you or not.

However, if you respond to us in writing (including by email) in the form specified below, we may publish the press release before the two working hours have elapsed.

Form of response to enable MIS to publish the press release before the full stated time period has elapsed:

"I confirm that we have reviewed the draft press release and that, to the best of our knowledge, it does not contain any factual errors or inadvertent disclosures of confidential information."

Please note: if the draft press release relates to the assignment of a new credit rating and the rated entity wishes to delay the public dissemination of such credit rating action pending an event that has not yet occurred, such as an announcement by the rated entity, you are responsible for providing this information to MIS within the time period stated above.

Thank you for your cooperation,
Enrique Cavazos
