Hey Alan,

Do you want me to start passing these requests along to you for response? As a point of reference, my typical response is copied below:

We are working through the final stages of our delayed FY23 audit process with RSM, and expect to have our ACFR developed and made available during January, pending further auditor requests. We will share our report and it will be published to EMMA at that time. Work on the FY24 audit will begin following completion of the FY23 report. For reference, this delay was caused primarily due to staff turnover (one retirement and one resignation) that derailed our audit process.

I'll keep replying to them for now, but once the audit work for FY23 is wrapped up, we can discuss further. Obviously, the hope will be that once we get to FY24, we're publishing and submitting to the state on the required schedule and this kind of thing is a non-issue.
