Hi Adam,

Just following up on the below. Based on your last email, possibly would have been wrapped up last week? Do you have any further updates?

Thanks,

Hey Dan,

As I shared in our last update, RSM has all of our data (and has since late fall), but they've had scheduling issues on their end due to staff availability in getting our audit completed. They are now scheduled to wrap up their work the weeks of 3/10 and 3/17; we expect the report to be available shortly after that. I wish we could have expedited this, but we've been somewhat in the dark about completion from the RSM side.

Cheers,

Hi Adam,

Per our conversation, understand the audit for the FYE 6/30/2023 may not be available until first part of 2025. In the meantime, is it possible to get a preliminary draft? We are under a deadline to complete our annual review by the end of this year. Please advise.

Thanks,

Hi Adam,

Just FYI, this is getting attention of our auditors and the next step would be sending a default notice due to lack of required financial reporting. I've left several messages over the last few months with no update. Both the FYE 6/30/23 and 6/30/24 audits are now past due. Please provide an update / response on the status.

Thanks,
