Good afternoon Sue,

The auditors are working on the review of the 2023 financial reports. We have responded to all of their open inquiries and they will need to conduct the rest of their review. Unfortunately it is difficult at this juncture to say how long that may take (Hopefully not more than a week or so) since this audit is being done out of cycle. We can probably provide you with a draft copy of the Audit in advance of the final issue so long as we include some typical draft disclosures when they are available.

Good morning,

At this time, we do not need a draft. If you could please forward the final as soon as it is available.

Thank you!
